

Ms. Callentine's Class... Weekly News and Homework

Week of January 10th to 14th

News:

- ❖ Classroom helpers still needed! If the New Year finds you with a little extra time on your hands, feel free to join our class. We begin the TPRI next week, which requires one-on-one testing for each student. Let me know if you're interested in helping!
- ❖ No school on Monday 1/17 (MLK)
- ❖ KidBlog added to our class website. Students with computer access can now log-in to their very own blog page from home for writing and technology practice!
